

REGD.NO.MAH/F/-1588/RATNAGIRI

(Recognized by Dental Council of India, New Delhi & Affiliated to Maharashtra University of Health Science, Nashik)

DESCRIPTION OF COMMUNITY BASED TEACHING LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Various activities are conducted involving the students on the community level

1. General Camps: Dental screening camps are organized regularly in the inaccessible rural areas.
2. Special Camps: Dental Screening and Oral Hygiene aids distribution for specially abled children.
3. Oral Health Education Camps: Visiting schools and colleges for oral health education talks.

Visiting rural communities and educating them about tobacco cessation, importance of oral hygiene, etc.

4. Awareness Programmes:

Various programmes are organized creating general awareness among the people like

- a. World No Tobacco Day (31st May) to create awareness about the harmful effects to tobacco.
  - b. Various activities on World Health Day (7th April) stating the importance of health, etc.
5. Free Dental Screening camps at Satellite centre.
  6. Dental screening and referral camps for government aided and private schools are conducted.

